28. If requested by the LNJSА, Clubs must provide proof of a player’s date of birth.
29. All registered players shall play in their natural age division according to the age they turn that calendar year (i.e. their age at 31st December that year), with the following exceptions:
 - (a) LNJSА Development Squad players, see rule 34
 - (b) Players may play ‘up’ in a higher age-division to a maximum of two years higher than their natural age division. In exceptional circumstances, a player may play ‘up’ in a higher age division greater than two years above their natural age division, where the player has been assessed by the FW Regional Development Officer or an appointed FW coaching representative and it has been concluded that:
 - i. the player's physical stature and technical ability are suited to playing in the older league; and
 - ii. the player's football development will significantly benefit from playing in the older league.
 - (c) The maximum age for a player to be eligible to play in a LNJSА youth league is 18 in that calendar year.
 - (d) Girls playing in a ‘girls only’ FIFA Football competition must play in the correct age group according to the age they turn that calendar year i.e. their age at 31st December that year. An exception to this rule is when a girl plays in a higher division in accordance with clause 29(a).
 - (e) Girls playing in a ‘mixed’ FIFA Football or Small Sided Football competition are eligible to play in a competition where the maximum age is one year less than the age they turn that calendar year i.e. their age at 31st December that year.  - (f) A club may request special permission from the LNJSА for a player (boy or girl) to play in a younger age group, although this is generally discouraged and would only be approved in extenuating circumstances. If such permission is granted, there will be a four game trial period during which time any opposing club may register a protest. If a protest is registered, the committee will re-examine the original request and decide whether to uphold the protest or not.
 - (g) A maximum of two (2) players covered by clause 29(e) may be allowed in any single team, unless otherwise approved in writing by the LNJSА Committee.
30. The minimum age for boys / girls to be eligible for registration is stipulated by Football West.

31. The LNJSА may invite specific registered players to be part of a team for the purposes of improving the skills of those players.

32. This skill development would generally occur through (i) playing in a team with players of similar age against teams in an older age division, and (ii) playing in a team coached by coaches who are recognised as being more experienced.
33. The LNJSA and its Member Clubs, in conjunction with clause 29 (a), acknowledge that players in a development team will often be playing in a division two or more years older than many of the players in the development team would normally play in for their own club.
